OJAI STUDIO ARTISTS ANNOUNCE 2010 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Award Presentation to take place at July 21 Reception and Award Ceremony at Ojai Valley Museum

(Ojai, CA – April 27, 2010) – Seven Ojai arts students have been named the 2010 Ojai Studio Artists Scholarship recipients. They were selected from a wide variety of submissions and the jurying was by OSA members. The scholarships are an ongoing program created to recognize talented young people and help them continue their education.

“OSA has bestowed over $96,000 in scholarships since the programs inception in 1993,” said Ruth Farnham, chair of this year’s scholarship committee. “The seven scholarships awarded for 2010 total $6,300.”

A reception honoring the students will be held on July 31 at the Ojai Valley Museum from 6 to 8 PM, as part of the “Made in Ojai VI” exhibition. The public is welcomed to the reception. The winning submissions will be on exhibit along with the works of OSA members. The exhibition opens July 29 and runs through September.

Following are the winners and the scholarship they were awarded:

Wyatt Amend	Vivika & Otto Heino Scholarship
Katie Reinman	John Farnham Scholarship
Devin Curry	Beatrice Wood Scholarship
Anna Reeser	Nancy Rupp Scholarship
Celeste Evans	Ojai Studio Artists Scholarship
Mason Sexton	Elaine Rogers Scholarship
Sarah Pilcher	Virginia Hoadley Scholarship

Through its various Arts Outreach programs, OSA has given almost $150,000 in donations and scholarships to Ojai Valley residents, institutions and other arts programs.
