OJAI STUDIO ARTISTS DONATE WORK TO RAISE FUND FOR LIBBEY BOWL

(Ventura, CA - June 4, 2010) Ojai Studio Artists co-founder Gayel Childress puts the final coat on her Libbey Bowl bench, one of ten benches from the famous landmark being redecorated or re-configured to raise funds for the completion of the Libbey Bowl improvements. Several members of the Ojai Studio Artists, a nonprofit arts education group, volunteered to turn the old benches into art for an auction to raise money for the Save Libbey Bowl community fundraising project. The art benches will be displayed in downtown Ojai storefronts during the Music Festival and until June 19th when the online Silent Auction will close.

To see all of the benches, find their viewing location or place a bid, visit <http://libbeybowl.org/the-project/upcoming-events/artist-benches/>
